

The Essence of our Chakra System

An 8 week course

starting on 12th of March 2009

With Sylvia Jacka

Cherrybrook NSW.

We are born in pure love and light but become disconnected to our true purpose in life. This totally new and comprehensive course will cover the Chakras on a Metaphysical, Psychological and Physical Level to help you become whole.

How do we develop wholeness within - Spiritual Medicine? Spiritual medicine is our ability to love and this provides us with our own healing. This is our connection to the essence of love in its purest form. Love will connect us directly with our heart, mind and spirit. If we do not have love, we get sick, relationships fail, etc. To develop wholeness this will then balance all areas of our life; body, mind, spirit, heart, work, relationships and emotional wellbeing.

This course will give each person practical knowledge of how to heal and balance each chakra as well as heal the soul at a very deep level. As you build and understand the spiritual significance and how everything is linked, then the spiritual path we all walk becomes much clearer.

Sylvia Jacka is a Holistic Practitioner who has been in practice for many years and will share her many years of knowledge. Sylvia believes in treating the whole person and not just the dis-ease, by understanding the underlying causes and the effect this has in our life.
