

2012 - AN EXPLOSION OF LIGHT AND LOVE.

By Narelle Green.

2012 I feel we will open for us more opportunities to serve the Light, hence humanity will be served in a greater capacity.

In 2012 it is imperative that we understand and know how to use the Light. Light is energy, and everything that exists is made up of energy, including you. Light is a pristine form of energy, and it carries the vibration of Supreme Love. This Love is freely available in endless supply to all humanity to transform beyond the human condition.

Humanity is standing at a crossroad; a doorway is opening to the finite realms of all possibilities. Now is the time for man to choose whether he adds to the welfare and goodness of the whole of our planet, or he adds to the destruction and the annihilation of the planet, through continued self-centered fear based thinking. In 2012 it is necessary for every man, woman and child to choose to raise their consciousness through the vibration of love and thus contribute to the community as a whole.

OLIVE – EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED.

Olive is the vibration within the Light of 2012 that will be strongly assisting humanity to raise their consciousness above mind energy, and align their energy with higher vibrations of intelligence within the Universe.

Olive is the great supplier of all that is needed. Olive brings to you whatever you need to support your life at the moment. Olive gently and surely moves you forward. Olive being part of the Green ray within the Light possesses all the qualities of the Green, the energy to balance, neutralize, heal, cleanse, restore, nurture and rejuvenate all systems within the body.

Olive assists in raising your energy beyond the lower destructive forces of mind energy: Olive assists to synchronize the mind and heart, assisting you to deal with the concerns of your mind and the longings of your heart. Olive strengthens the heart chakra, a portal within your Aura, which needs pure energy from the higher planes to operate at its full capacity. Heart disease is the number one killer on our planet today. Under the influence of mind energy, the mind is easily confused, worried and scattered, which leads to anxiety, stress, sleeplessness, lethargy, addictions, phobias and costly errors in poor judgment. All cells and organs within your body need pure energy, that is, 'love' flowing through them to be healthy and operate at their optimum capacity. If pure energy is not flowing through your organs, in time they will become depleted and diseased.

In 2012 we will be faced with change in many areas of our lives. Change is a necessary component of 2012, but change can stir up our fears. Fear of the unknown and the future, can be daunting resulting in emotional overwhelm and stress, which immediately brings our energy down and disconnects us from the flow of love. If this imbalance is not corrected it can lead to illness and chaotic conditions in our lives. The energy of Olive is the perfect tool to bring about balance and harmony in our lives with ease and grace. An infinite supply of pure energy is always in the present moment to supply whatever you may need in that moment; but thinking stops the flow. Consciously use Olive to go beyond mind energy and free the flow.

Relax you don't have to work it all out in your head there a many wonderful tools available to you to keep your energy high. You can use the science of colour and the essence of light and love captured in Soul Colour Energy Sprays to balance, energize and transform your energy and achieve energetic well-being with ease and grace.

On a micro level you may need to find the precise colour vibration to assist you through personal changes and challengers in 2012. Remember you are not alone, the language of colour can keep your energy high and strong.

NOTE: Soul Colour Energy Sprays can be purchased through the Academy's website.