Sunday April 2nd 2017 : WORKSHOP

Day 2 - Dowsing (Intuitive Sensing) [2.5/3 hrs]

0900 – 1200 (stay after to enjoy BYO lunch)
$35 PP.

Dowsing is more than finding water. The Original peoples used their full range of sense-abilities and were able to detect disharmonic frequencies and therefore readily avoid them.

All humans have this ability to sense both physical and conscious frequencies, though some are more sentient than others. Should you use a pendulum or rods you are welcome to bring them along. However the focus will be on tuning into your body.

This is an introduction workshop and folks are encouraged to continue to develop their own data set and guidelines for doing that will be outlined.

Register attendance via Email: rosemary@aol.org.au Mobile: 0414 941 543

Natural Law Session : Morning tea provided. Bring your own lunch, picnic blanket or campstool, rain-jacket, sunscreen, insect repellent.

Accommodation for long-distance travellers can be arranged if needed.

Dowsing Session : An outdoor venue and includes bush-walking. Bring good walking shoes, own water, nibbles, sun protection, hat, rain-jacket.

In the advent of inclement weather the Dowsing event may be postponed to later in the day OR cancellation may ensue. Light rain will NOT cancel the event - though really bad weather will.

Trevor Wie, an adoptee-lineal to Larakia and Gunwinggu Nations, NT, is visiting Jacaranda Haven for two sessions of knowledge transfer of ancient values, sharing his knowledge of values from western Arnhem Land.
